The Fourth Sunday of the Year

Introduction:

Everyone knew Jesus as an ordinary carpenter, the son of Mary and Joseph; but Jesus was also the son of God. Today we hear how the people in Capernaum began to realize that there was something very special about Jesus of Galilee.

OPENING PRAYER

Light a Candle and say this together:

I, the Lord, will be your everlasting light

And my glory will shine on you

Always. (Isaiah 60:19)

Amen.

GOSPEL:
MARK 1:21-27

Jesus was staying in a town called Capernaum, and on the Sabbath day, he went to the synagogue to pray. There he began to teach the people, and they were amazed because he spoke to them of God in a way that no one else had ever done before. Suddenly he was interrupted by a man who was disturbed by an evil spirit. He shouted loudly at Jesus, and everyone was afraid.

Jesus said in a firm voice. “Be quiet, spirit, and leave this man in peace.” The man began to shake, and then with a loud cry, the spirit left him. Everyone was amazed by what had taken place. “What is happening?” they asked. “This man Jesus can explain scriptures like no one else, and even the spirits will obey him.

Discussion

A synagogue is a building where the Jewish people meet to pray and listen to the scriptures. Where do Christians meet to listen to God's word?

We meet every week in church to listen to God's word. Each week we gather together as a family to listen to the word of God.

The readings are taken from the Bible, a very special book which tells of God's great love for his people. God speaks to us through the words of the readings. He calls us to follow him, and by listening carefully and understanding what we hear, he can work in our lives.

COLORING PAGES

The next two slides are coloring pages for your child. Print out only those slides.

Let's Pray Together

For all of those working to keep us safe.

For all of those who are sick.

For God to keep us and those we love safe.

And, for anything for which you want to pray.
(Pause to give your child time to pray)

We pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

CLOSING PRAYER

Help us to listen carefully to your words,
Lord,
And keep them forever
In our hearts.

Amen.

HAVE A GREAT DAY!

SEE YOU NEXT WEEK!
