HOLY FAMILY

Dear Friends,

This weekend we hear the story of the wedding feast of Cana, where Jesus performs His first miracle and turns water into wine. It's a story that is worth reading just to see the humanity at play in Jesus and Mary and the people in the wedding. How Jesus doesn't think this is the time for Him to perform a miracle. He seems aware of his ability but then again Mary doesn't answer his objection directly but just says, past him to others, "Do as he tells you." One can imagine the look on Jesus' face and on Mary's when this happens and then even the scenario that the wine turns out to be really GREAT wine!!

In the end, this scene today tells us that Jesus can take the ordinary in our lives....what seems so mundane....like water from a tap, and can transform it into something great and beautiful, like the very best wine to celebrate a wedding.

Let's remember that as we pray to the Lord today and follow him today. He can take what is everyday or even broken and make it beautiful.

A few things coming up:

- ◆ Consider being part of FOLLOWING CHRIST, a multi-week program to help us all have a closer walk with Jesus and the Church. It will include a presentation, discussion and free dinner beginning on Wednesday, January 20th at 6:45pm in Unity Hall. Sign up at www.holyfamilychurch.com.
- ◆ "Welcome Back," a four week program for those who have been away from the Church began on Thursday, January 7th at 7:30pm in the library, room located next to the JMJ Café. Visit www.holyfamilychurch.com for more information. No need to register.
- ◆ The Men's Group gathers again on Thursday, January 28th at 6:30am in the Chapel followed by Mass.
- ◆ Lastly, all are invited to gather on Friday, January 22nd for the National March for Life. We will meet at Holy Family at 11am that day in the Narthex. We'll start with coffee and donuts and then caravan to the New Carrollton Metro Station. It is an easy and convenient way to go to the March. Please contact Katherine for more information at KSMILLERHOME@VERIZON.NET.

Peace, Fr. Andy

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."
