Dear Brothers and Sisters,
May 19th & 20th

This weekend is PENTECOST SUNDAY, when we remember the gifts of the Holy Spirit. In our lives we look for the help of the Spirit to follow the Lord Jesus. We say that the Holy Spirit enlivens our lives personally when we follow the Lord's commandments and when we love one another, and when we turn to God and ask for help and assistance.

We say that the Holy Spirit assists the whole Church community as we see in John 20 when Jesus BREATHED the Holy Spirit upon the apostles, and when the Holy Spirit comes upon ALL of the disciples (men and women, all the followers of Jesus) when they were gathered in one place in the event that we celebrate with this feast day.

Let's remember to pray and to try to stay close to God so that the Holy Spirit, and not the world or our own ego or our own foibles, guide us on this day.

Save the date:

1.Catholicism 101 begins May 20th 12:30pm-1:30pm in the Parish Library and JMJ Café. There will be three sessions.

2.Healing Mass with Fr. Binoy on Tuesday, May 22nd at 7pm. All are invited!

3. There will be a special CONSECRATION TO THE VIRGIN MARY on the Feast of the Visitation (Thursday, May 31st) with rosary at 7pm and a Mass at 7:30pm in the Church. What is this consecration all about? Simply asking for prayers to better follow Jesus….from Jesus's mother. This idea comes out of the larger mindset, from ancient Christianity, that we can ask for the prayers of those who have died: For every Christian martyr under the Roman Empire became revered by those very earliest Christians, some of whom knew the Lord Jesus Himself. They would go to pilgrimage to where they had been martyred, and they kept relics (pieces of clothing, etc.) of the saint on their person to remind them of the prayers coming from heaven. The Letter to the Hebrews 12:1 references the prayers who have died when St. Paul mentioned the "cloud of witnesses" who are all around us and who pray for us.

God bless you,
Fr. Andy

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me."

CARING FOR CREATION MINISTREE: Did you know that we are now using recyclable cups at Holy Family? Please put them in the yellow recycling bins when done, located throughout the Church. If your ministry still has some leftover Styrofoam cups please use them up and throw them in the trash as they are not recyclable in Anne Arundel County. See Jeanne in the parish office to order approved cups. Better yet, ask folks to bring their own cups from home.

As we seem to finally get some warm weather, our gardeners are eyeing all the plants that are available at stores everywhere. If you can, please visit any one of the many local nurseries in our area. Ask to be directed to the plants native to our area. Trees are best planted in the fall. When you choose natives you are providing food that our local wildlife evolved over the eons together. Monarch butterflies are on the way, don't forget the butterfly milkweed and butterfly bush. If you see a caterpillar eating the leaves, great that is what they need for food. Don't worry the plant will recover.

Can you bring one can or box of food for the poor to Church with you each week? There are green bins on either side of the doors in the Narthex and are collected weekly and delivered to Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

See all the volunteer pictures on our website (www.holyfamilychurch.com) under Caring For Creation Ministry. Service and volunteer hours are always available. Email Chris Gordon, Master Watershed Steward, at christophergordon@verizon.net.

SACRASTINS NEEDED!
What do Sacristans do?

- They open and lock up for weekend Masses.
- They help to stock the pews with pencils and paperwork when there are in-pew surveys or collections at Mass.
- They set up the bread, wine, vessels and other things necessary for Mass.
- They turn the tv's and sound on in the Narthex and miscellaneous other duties. This job is a paid position (minimum wage).

One openness Sacristans would need to have would be that they are often available on weekends and at holidays like Holy Week, Easter and Christmas Eve/Day. We are looking for applicants of any age for these positions, including retired members of the parish who might have a good amount of flexibility in terms of scheduling. For more information, please email MaryAnn at rettmom@verizon.net.

BLOOD DRIVE RESULTS: 55 people donated with 49 units collected and 6 deferred. A special thank you to Steve, Misha, Ron and Sue who volunteered their time!

PRAYER GROUP: Strengthen your faith. "He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak." (Isaiah 40:29). Join the prayer group on Tuesday evenings at 7pm in the Chapel for a spiritual boost. For more information, please email Rose King at kinbralia@yahoo.com.

Email Donna Giovinazzo at donnagiovinazzo@hotmail.com or Rose King at kinbralia@yahoo.com.

FAMILY ROSARY: We meet to pray the Rosary as families the first Friday of the month at 7pm in the Chapel. This is very informal and sometimes very noisy and cute with the presence of little ones! We love to have the many generations come together to pray for our families and our world. For more information, email Rosie Sheppard at sweethomehill@gmail.com.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK: Dear Friends, we are looking for some new members for the Parish Pastoral Council. This is a group that meets with Fr. Andy to give him feedback with regard to issues he and the staff are confronted with in the life of the parish. This group, also, helped to organize TWO LISTENING SESSIONS (November & January) on four different topics which were pertinent to the development of our PARISH STRATEGIC PLAN which will be released to all parishioners this summer.

We are looking for the following:

1.Willingness to attend the four meetings of the council each year.

2. Willingness to help to organize and facilitate a listening session for parishioners on topics pertinent to a tweaking of the Parish Strategic Plan in the coming year.

3.The ability to commit to being part of this group for five years.

If you are interested in this group, please contact Fr. Andy. We cannot promise that everyone who expresses interest will be able, at this time, to be part of the council, since we want to keep this group to a manageable size, but we hope to be open to as many parishioners as possible who sincerely want to serve at this time from the larger parish and who want to be a sounding board for the pastor and staff, and to be, in turn, through the annual listening sessions, a sounding board for other parishioners and their concerns. Please give this some prayer and email Fr. Andy at aaaron@archbalt.org by May 31st.
